

Highway Calls For 4-Lane on 87 Thru Canyon

Making a four lane highway through Canyon and a three lane highway from Canyon to Lubbock is on the program of the State Highway Commission.

Mayor W. A. Warren states that the division engineer and assistants were here Saturday to make preliminary plans.

The highway department and railroad wish to move the present 2-lane underpass on Highway 87 200 feet north, thus cutting down the railroad grade at this point, and to continue the four lane construction through Canyon. The state and railroad would pay all of the expense of this project.

When it comes to the city, the state is demanding that the city furnish right-of-way for four lanes.

Mayor Warren states that the four lane construction could be run to fourth Avenue with little cost to the city. When Fourth Avenue is passed the story is altogether different. If the state demands the four lane construction, it will be necessary to move at least three business houses and three or four residences in order to secure sufficient land. The damages would necessitate another bond issue as the city does not have the funds for so much construction.

Mayor Warren suggested that the three lane highway to Lubbock start at Fourth Avenue since there was adequate land available and the city would be out very little expense. No further word has been received on this project.

Rail Official Denies Roads at Fault on Cars

A Santa Fe official denies that the present box car shortage is the fault of the railroads.

"1947 has seen an abnormally high wheat production. As a matter of fact the wheat crop of this year equals the normal wheat crop of a three year period. The railroads were not in position to handle such a heavy load.

"This section asked for 10,000 box-cars to handle the wheat crop which was seen to be coming on. The railroads had requested a sufficient amount of steel to build additional cars to handle the increased freight load. The request for more steel was denied by the government. Therefore, a government bureau is responsible for the present shortage, simply because the needed steel was refused when the railroads wished to get the rolling stock repaired and in shape," stated this official.

So that's an explanation!

Miss Nell Green, teacher of English in the demonstration school, will go to Columbia University in September to work on her Ph. D. degree.

DDT Spraying To Be Done By Many Panhandle Towns

Lubbock and Amarillo are among the large towns of West Texas which have bought DDT spraying machines. The machines are used to spray the alleys in order to kill flies and other insects.

Plainview has rented the Lubbock machine, and the spraying is done at a time when most citizens are at home. The machine is a sort of a battleship smoke screen apparatus, which sent out a fog of DDT mixture that will cover alleys, and extend around the homes on both sides of the alleys.

The DDT mixture is death to all insects, but will not injure warm blooded animals, which include people. Citizens are advised to leave their windows open so that the fog may enter the homes and kill any insects which may be in the houses.

No Change In Parking Along North of Square

A petition to the State Highway Department was circulated among property owners on the north side of the square several weeks ago and was taken to division headquarters in Amarillo last week.

The division engineer and assistant came to Canyon Saturday morning and looked over the situation.

Under the original agreement, the state took over the maintenance of the highway through Canyon, provided parallel parking would be enforced through Canyon.

The order was put in effect on the north side of the square, and has proved unsatisfactory because of the high sidewalks which prohibits cars from parking close to the sidewalk. Right doors of cars are useless when the cars are in proper position.

According to Mayor W. A. Warren, the state officials said that the only way angle parking would be approved was to widen the street by removing the outside section of the sidewalk. This has been proposed for several years, but several property owners oppose this idea.

It was further indicated that the state would demand of the city parallel parking in the block east of the square, where angle parking is now permitted.

The section along the south side of the postoffice is not affected, as the street goes almost up to the sidewalk.

$1,000 Given To Museum by Carson County Oil Man

David M. Warren, publisher of the Panhandle Herald, and director of the Panhandle-Plains Historical Society, has received a check for $1,000 from Henry Schafer, pioneer ranchman and oil operator of Carson county.

Mr. Warren pays the following tribute to Mr. Schafer in an editorial in last week's issue of The Herald:

Donation of $1,000 by Henry Schafer, pioneer rancher in the Skellytown area, has set pace for gifts from Carson County in the 1947 campaign for the Panhandle-Plains Historical Society's museum at Canyon.

Work on the second unit began before World War II. Completion became impossible with the start of the war and also additional financing had to be provided.

Campaign waged in 1945 under the general direction of H. C. Pipkin of Amarillo netted around $30,000. This money has been largely spent in bricking in the building and laying the roof.

To complete the building and to furnish fixtures make it necessary to start again, as the campaign marked time under the belief that the legislature would supply funds.

The legislature provided the money, but there was none left on the pay-as-you-go basis. In other words, deficit financing is prohibited by the state of Texas. All the money had been spent before the museum bill reached the comptroller for certification.

As the 1947 completion campaign gets under way, this generous gift from Henry Schafer will be an inspiration. It will not only help Carson County, but it will cause people from other counties to make gifts to the museum fund.

No greater achievement could be made for the Panhandle of Texas in 1947 than to provide funds for the completion of the museum. Carson County is helping to set a generous standard with a large gift from Henry Schafer.

Two Amarillo Men Drowned at Buffalo Lake

Two Amarillo men, Herbert Arnold, 47 years old, 2111 Pierce, and John Edward Elliott, 33 years old, 411-B East Eighth, were drowned early Sunday morning when their boat capsized in about eight feet of water at Buffalo Lake. J. B. Elliott, 3606 Taylor, a brother of John Elliott, was rescued from the boat.

Witnesses fishing along the lake shore said they heard cries for help about 1:40 o'clock. Other fishermen waded into the water in an effort to reach the drowning men, but were unable to locate them in the darkness.

It is believed that the boat must have spun out of control, throwing one of the men into the water, and that another tipped the boat in an effort to cut off the engine.

The body of John Elliott was recovered about 20 feet south of the boat at 3:15 and Mr. Arnold's body was not found until 4:55 Sunday morning.

Mr. Arnold, who had lived in Amarillo 11 months, was service manager at Walter Irwin, Inc., and Mr. Elliott, an Amarillo resident for the past 15 years, was employed as a machine operator. Mr. Arnold is survived by his wife and Mr. Elliott by his wife and infant son.

Implement Roof Caved in During Storm Sunday

Strong winds and a downpour of rain Sunday afternoon caused a portion of the roof at the Byars-Oliver Farm Equipment building to cave in. W. T. Oliver, one of the owners estimated damage amounting to approximately $2,000. A stopped drain pipe and faulty construction may have contributed to the cave-in.

The fallen roof included a strip about twenty feet wide extending entirely across the rear of the building. No damage was caused inside, however Mr. Oliver had considered parking his car inside the building at the beginning of the storm, but had decided against it.

Wheat Harvest Will End This Week Is Report

Harvest in Randall county is practically over.

Only scattered fields of wheat have remained uncut, and these should be finished by the weekend.

Fine harvest weather has continued, with everything in favor of the wheat harvest this year.

The boxcar situation remains as critical as ever in moving wheat. However, most of the wheat which was not moved by trucks is piled on the ground. Farmers are hoping that open weather will continue until it is possible to remove this wheat.

No estimates were available on the wheat crop this week. There has been so much confusion in finding a market that it has been impossible to make a fair estimate of the yield. However, many farmers predict that the average for the county will not be as large as estimated several weeks ago. Some fields have made an unusual yield, but others are not turning out as well as expected.

Editorials

The American people took a beating at the hands of John L. Lewis. It seems that the mine owners have lost interest in what happens, as they now have the power to boost coal prices to meet the increased cost of production. Death of OPA made this possible.

The mine owners, who have been deprived of the use of their own property, were over a barrel, so to speak. It was either slug it out with Lewis, or have the administration again step in and mess up their property. For the past 16 years labor has controlled the White House, and there was little or nothing that the industrialists could do about it. Truman is following the steps of Roosevelt in appealing to the masses in the labor camp. Only one thing can happen: Increased prices of steel, freight rates, electric rates in coal burning districts, fuel for the homes of millions of Americans.

When you consider all of these industries which are directly affected, you can see what is going to happen to the economy of the nation. While Lewis was spanking the mine owners, the people of America were taken to a horrible cleaning. We shall have to await the results.

The people of the United States have long wondered just why one Senator from that supposedly dignified and intelligent body of lawmakers, could block nomination of good men by the simple process of calling the nominee "personally obnoxious" to him. In this great Democracy of ours, a lot of peculiar things happen, but in spite of all this stuff, it is still the greatest nation on the face of the earth. In the case of Joe B. Dooley, our Pappy O'Daniel could raise no other objection than that he was the member of a firm which had been strong in New Deal tendencies. If Joe Dooley was an ardent New Dealer, that was his business, and the worry of no one else. Appointees to high office in the United States are subject to a fine comb investigation from FBI, as well as senatorial scrutiny. When nothing else can be found, the opposing Senator thinks that his colleagues should back him up in the declaration of "personal obnoxious." Pappy O'Daniel received a justified spanking. We hope that other senators who try the same stunt will likewise be spanked.

It is the policy of witch hunters to make broad charges, hoping that the public will swallow these charges. Too often the public is inclined to believe all it hears without substantiation. It is an unfortunate belief that colleges are hotbeds for Red activities. This is brought about by the continuous popping off of some supposedly intelligent men who assume a superior attitude toward the public. Chances are that most of the Reds are harmless, with the exception that they are planting seed in fertile young minds and these seeds may develop into something serious. A sensationalist recently made charges of Red activities in TCU. Instead of trying to cover up on the charges, the investigators were challenged to move in and uncover those who were charged as guilty. Naturally the challenge was not accepted. Probably every college should meet the situation in like manner. If Red propaganda is being spread by any faculty member, an investigation and exposition of the guilty member will not hurt as much as a denial, especially when a lot of people will believe the charge until fully satisfied of the fallacy of the charge. Open and above board is the only method of handling such situations.

Maybe it is a good thing for the American people that the saucers showed up at this particular time. We have something more to worry about, or to sneer about, according to your attitude to the flying disks, which are being reported all over the nation. If these objects are real, someone is going to a lot of trouble and spending a lot of money; but if the people who are seeing things are really seeing things, a lot of folks need to use their eyes on conditions around them, rather than gaze into the sky.

Pappy O'Daniel is unhappy over the confirmation of Joe B. Dooley.

Pappy said that if the Senate did not agree with him, the people of Texas would consider his influence in Washington at an end. So far as we have been able to ascertain, the people reached that conclusion several months ago. We can tell you about it after July, 1948.

The Republicans will push their tax reduction bill through Congress in spite of Democratic and administrative opposition. As we have said many, many times: If the Republicans will use the public money in paying off the national debt instead of paying political debts, the nation will be glad to continue paying high income taxes. The waste that goes with government is that thing that gripes us all. And the Republicans have done little to reduce this waste.

While Governor Dewey denies that he is a candidate for President on the Republican ticket, it is not intimated that he is making the present swing around the nation for the sake of his health. Governor Tom has been shocked at the strength shown by Harold Stassen in recent polls, and the increased popularity of General McArthur.

Now that Governor Dewey is "on the road," advisers of President Truman urge that he take to the forks of the creek and swing across the country. It is the feeling in Washington that the voters will be more independent in 1948, and that they are not going to be voted en masse by the political bosses.

We are told that the real reason Stalin wants to break up the economic plan is to restore bankrupt Europe is the inability of Russia to carry her share of the load. Russia is a bankrupt nation, but to admit this would be a blow to the Reds, especially among the nations which are under Red influence. You know about the family who has to keep up with the Jones.

The man on the street wonders just how long it will take to throttle Petrillo. The little fat music man is doing no particular harm to the public, but when he defeats the purpose of all regulatory laws, and openly defies Congress and the laws of the nation, he encourages other labor leaders to follow in his steps. John L. Lewis is public menace No. 1; but Petrillo is a close follower—as public nuisance No. 1.

We are not much of a prophet, but are of the opinion that the present big wheat crop will do two things: It will make the largest acreage that Randall county has ever had in 1948; and that millers will boost the price of wheat materially as soon as the farmers have disposed of this year's crop. Gamblers are itching to get action in boosting prices after the crop is out of the hands of the producers. However, most farmers take the position that they have made plenty of money from this year's record crop, and are not concerned with the future. And we are not gambling on the future.

What's the matter with Canyon? Have you any complaint? What can we do to improve local conditions? The News would like to have some letters from the readers. During the summer months we have time and space to print a lot of letters. During the school year our facilities are pretty heavily taxed. Why not write a letter giving your ideas? About half of the letters which are printed in daily papers are written by staff members. We don't want that kind of stuff. We want the honest convictions of our readers and not a line of bull from our staff.

Little did we ever dream that we would see the day when weekly newspapers were forced to reject new subscriptions and to limit their editions in the number of pages. But we are living in a crazy world, and the economy of every nation has been upset. A majority of the weeklies are using up their print supply every week. Fortunately The News has not been so badly handicapped. We are still able to take subscriptions, and to print as many pages as advertising justifies. Our fingers are still crossed!

REVOLUTION in tire construction gives added strength and durability to CO-OP TRUCK TIRES

Years of research by our supplier, one of the nation's leading tire manufacturers, have resulted in a revolutionary tire construction principle.

The principle: Greater strength, longer wear, and more dependable service—with fewer plies!

The number of plies was the measure of the quality and durability of the old style tires. Quality and durability in the new style tires are based on the strength of the individual plies rather than their number alone. The increased strength of the plies results from the use of vastly improved high tenacity rayon cords. These cords have much greater strength and fatigue resistance than the cotton cords or the old type rayon cords formerly used. The effect of this new development is to produce eight-ply tires, for example, which have greater strength than ten-ply tires of the old style of construction.

Advantages of the new CO-OP Rayon Truck Tires are:

1. greater resistance to tread separation
2. greater resistance to ply separation
3. greater resistance to rupture "growth"
4. greater resistance to bead failure.

The Tire and Rim Association is substituting the term "ply rating" for the old term "ply" in its Heavy Service Tire load tables. CO-OP Truck Tires will carry this new type label rating.

National Cooperatives is among the first to make this new, improved tire available to the public. CO-OP Truck Tires are dependable—see them—

Reveal Betrothal At Luncheon

Announcement of the engagement and approaching marriage of Miss Shirley Barks Harrell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Newton Harrell of Claude, Texas to Mr. William E. Howe of Wichita, Kansas, was revealed to intimate school girl friends of the bride-to-be and their mothers at a luncheon on Tuesday at 12:30 o'clock in the home of her paternal grandmother, Mrs. E. D. Harrell, 1000 Fourth Avenue.

Mrs. Newton Harrell and Mrs. E. D. Harrell received the guests at the door. Mrs. N. A. Croson, maternal grandmother, and Mrs. Roy Ransom of Claude, aunt of the bride-to-be, assisted in seating the guests.

Card tables, draped with white cut work, Mexican and Philippine drawn work cloths, were centered with delicate vases holding pansies and baby's breath. Pastel floral handkerchiefs, arranged to resemble nosegays, marked the places between the silver service and before each place card. Her remarks were based upon two reports made by Bishop Garber, who first visited Poland in the spring of 1946, and then again this spring. On his first visit the Bishop found 90% of Warsaw in ruins. He gathered religious leaders of all denominations and set to work trying to relieve the suffering of the people. Poland had lost between 6 and 7 million of her people during the war. Electronic Device Used to Grade Eggs

New Method Gives Promise of Revolution.

ITHACA, N. Y. — An electronic method of grading and sorting eggs that is said to hold promise of revolutionizing egg grading, has been invented at Cornell university agricultural experiment station by Prof. Alexis L. Romanoff.

It sorts eggs for internal quality and potential perishability better than present procedures, telling about internal conditions that cannot be seen.

Ordinarily eggs are graded by candling. An egg is held before a light, and the candler observes size of air cell, color and movement of yolk, and clearness of albumen, all of which help to determine the grade.

In the new Romanoff method, the egg is placed into a coil lying in an electromagnetic field of radio frequency. In this field the current passes through the egg, which absorbs the electric power. The power is measured and shows up on a meter.

Good eggs absorb the least power and poor eggs the most. The electronic method does not reveal blood spots if present, making one candling necessary, but it does eliminate several subsequent candling operations, and this would be an immense saving on the billions of market eggs.

In the experimental laboratory equipment the meter shows fine distinctions in egg quality, but for wide use the dial could simply be labeled, "Good, medium, poor," Romanoff said.

The new method is considered close to 100 per cent accurate as compared with the 75 per cent accuracy of the candling system. Cornell Research foundation has received the gift of the patent on the invention. The device is not yet made in a commercial form.

Romanoff came upon the "electronic method through research on egg fertility extending back to 1938. In the process of studying thousands of eggs, certain peculiarities were observed, due to quality. Some of the differences between fertile and infertile eggs, for example, were so small that a new method had to be devised to determine them. And thus electronics came to his poultry laboratory.

Divorced 27 Years Ago, Elderly Couple Rewed

LONG BEACH, CALIF. — "I never stopped loving her," said Frank L. Rector, 76, as he applied for a license to remarry Nellie R. Rector, 76, who divorced him 27 years ago.

"Nellie and I both lived in Cleveland," Rector said. "We crossed the lake on the old D. & C. steamship and were married in Detroit September 25, 1897."

They came to Long Beach 46 years ago. After she divorced him, Rector remarried. Since his second divorce, he said, he's been trying to talk Nellie into remarrying him.

Atom Power Station Plan Is Explained in London

LONDON. — Britain's first atomic power station, a huge plant designed to produce electricity from uranium, is to be built at Drigg in Cumberland, the Daily Express said.

Several uranium engines will be set up, the article said, and "plans to have the first engine working within five years have been approved by the cabinet. It is estimated to cost 7,000,000 pounds ($28,000,000)."

"This engine is expected to have a full production output of 75,000 kilowatts, enough to supply light and power to a city the size of Liverpool—the fourth city of the British isles with 855,000 people," the Express said. "If it is a success, other engines will be built at Drigg and a second atomic power station will be set up in Scotland."

"The total output of these two plants should eventually be more than 1,000,000 kilowatts, contributing a quarter of Britain's electrical power needs and saving 5,000,000 tons of coal a year."

More Men in Armies Now Than in '38 at War's Edge

NEW YORK. — Hanson W. Baldwin, military writer, says that almost 19 million men are under arms throughout the world today and that about 40 nations are spending $27,400,000,000 annually for armaments.

Baldwin arrived at those figures through an unofficial world military survey which, he said, indicated that the nations were "spending perhaps 10 billion dollars more on armaments than they did on the eve of war in 1938."

Part of the increase in cost, Baldwin said, is a paper increase due to inflated currency values, but he added that despite the disappearance of Germany and Japan as military powers, more men are in uniform today than in prewar years.

The survey was based on data gathered in foreign countries supplemented by material furnished by U. S. military sources and by representatives of foreign governments here, Baldwin said.

A man is making progress when he places a harness on a horse instead of a bet.

Will Clayton, U. S. Under Secretary of State for Economic Affairs, is under explicit instructions to advise Europe that the Marshall Plan is not a handout. Clayton's superior officer, George Marshall, wants it clearly understood that Europe is going to have to give in order to receive.

The Edinburgh, Scotland, College of Art opened an exhibit in London with only half the usual number of nude painting. Reason: Models refused to strip during last winter's coal shortage. Art for art's sake—but not when it comes to downright discomfort.

Everything but the price tag says—

Adequate Gas Equipment...

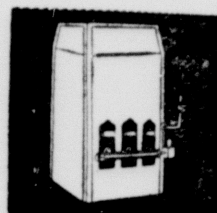

Adds to SALEABILITY of Homes

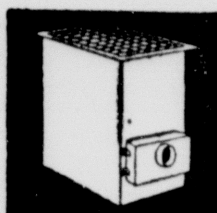

THE TIME WILL COME when the homes now being planned and built and remodeled, will not be as easy to sell as they are now. Then the PLUS features, the saleable features, will be important. Then modern gas equipment will be especially important.

In this area, natural gas is the preferred fuel. So, if you are building or planning a new home, look ahead to the time when you may wish or need to sell it. Equip it with the very best gas heating equipment you can possibly afford. If you want the best, install a forced-air control furnace. Another good type of heating equipment is the floor furnace.

A good gas heating plant will add more to the saleability—and the liveability—of a home than any other feature of equal original cost.

Central Furnace

Furnace
Floor

Be sure, too, to install a big, automatic gas water heater. It should be of at least 30-gallon capacity. If you have more than two bedrooms, the 40-gallon size is recommended. If you have two bathrooms and more than three bedrooms, the 50-gallon size is recommended.

When you buy gas equipment of any kind, be sure it bears the Blue Star Seal of Approval (illustrated at right) of the American Gas Association's laboratories. It is your assurance of compliance with National Safety Requirements. On equipment, the star is usually in blue.

Pioneers of Plains Will Be Honored At XIT Services

DALHART: The Ministerial Alliance has joined the General XIT committee in co-sponsorship of the 11th Annual XIT Reunion memorial service in Dalhart Thursday night, July 24, at 8:00 in the First Baptist church.

The memorial service, paying special tribute to all pioneers who have passed on, always prefaces the Reunion which will begin a two-day program of parades, rodeos, dances, carnivals and other attractions on Friday morning, July 25.

The general committee, which stages the big show, also has sent out special invitations to every former XIT man and woman whose names and addresses it knows. Frank B. Farwell, Sr., former Dalhart mayor and once an XIT cowhand himself, is in charge of the special invitations. "We may not get invitations to every XIT'er," he said, "because we don't know all their names, but they all have a special welcome awaiting them."

Oldtimers, regardless of whether they ever worked for the three-million acre XIT spread, are coming from great distances to the colorful reunion, biggest celebration in the West based on the history of a ranch. H. W. Harlin, Sr., Kerrville, Texas real estate man, writes that he's coming and will bring at least three autoloading folks with him. This will be his first Reunion. W. C. Roberts, Rural Route 3, Bryan, O., used to work for the XIT 55 years ago but has never been at a Reunion. Recently he wrote Postmaster Jack Wade that "I'll be at the shindig this year."

Delay in reviving Western Germany is increasing the likelihood that the whole burden soon will be shifted to the shoulders of the United States. As it is, one seventh of the American loan to Great Britain is being absorbed in British purchases of food and supplies for Germany. Britain's dollars may run out this winter.

A good deal of worry and uncertainty preceded the U. S. Sale of surplus bullets to Generalissimo Chiang Kai-shek. Some members of President Truman's Cabinet have become alarmed over the rate at which Chiang's China seems to be falling apart. What they fear is that the Communists may be moving toward actual control of 450,000,000 Chinese.

Department store sales in Japan are increasing. The value of sales by 109 stores during the first five months of 1947 rose at the rate of $2,500,000 a month. Total sales this year may exceed $100,000,000, against last year's total of $27,600,000.

SHORT STORY

Nice Old Girl

By MARGARET COBB

WHEN Sally Carter spied the crisp green of the bill lying against the white of the sidewalk that bordered the engineering building, she dropped the handle of the baby carriage and swooped down upon it.

"Look, Richey, look!" she cried happily to the cheerful bright-eyed boy in the carriage. "A ten-dollar bill—a real, brand new ten-dollar bill. I found it myself, and I can spend it any way I please!"

Turning the carriage briskly to return the way she had come, Sally sped her son back toward the trailer camp that nestled at the foot of the hill, a haven for married student veterans.

Once inside her trailer home she hurriedly hung the pinafore in the tiny clothes closet and reached for her best skirt and sweater. "Do you know what I'm going to do with this money first thing, Richey?" she cried happily. "I'm going to get you a play pen, so you can stay out in the fresh air all day long and have plenty of room to wiggle around in."

Sally dropped the sweater to give the baby a quick, impetuous hug. "We'll get Daddy that pipe he wants, and maybe there'll be enough money left over to get me some dress material!"

Speeding joyfully across the campus toward town, her hand straying often to the money in her pocket, Sally suddenly slowed her pace, her face sober.

3 Minute Fiction

"Oh, dear," she thought, "I've been so happy about having some money all my own that it hadn't even occurred to me that it belongs to someone else. Oh, dear!"

PARKING the carriage at the door to the engineering building, she entered, hesitated a moment outside a door marked "Office," and went in. The secretary looked up as Sally laid the bill on the desk.

"I found this outside the building, Miss Hanson, so I guess it belongs to someone in here." She was talking fast, turning to leave.

"Wait a minute, Mrs. Carter," the older woman called. "You may as well keep it. I don't see how we can ever find out who it belongs to. 'Finders keepers,' you know. Now you just run along downtown and see what you can find to buy."

"Do her good to have some money all her own," Miss Hanson muttered as the door closed. "Of course I should have held it a day or two in case anyone asked about it, but that child probably hasn't had a dollar to spend as she likes since Richard entered here!"

In mid-afternoon, about the time Sally was unwrapping her new purchases at home, Richard Carter was frantically going through his pockets.

"I know I brought it with me," he muttered as he searched one pocket after another. "Good grief, what'll I do? It's all the money we had left for the rest of the month—a nice new ten-dollar bill. I must have dropped it when I opened my billfold sometime today."

A MOMENT later, as he was explaining his plight to the secretary, he was relieved to see a quick look of comprehension in her eyes. "You haven't had it turned in, have you?" he finished hopefully.

"Why, yes," she replied slowly. "I have. At least, a young lady gave me a ten-dollar bill this morning and told me she'd found it outside. It must have been yours. Wait a minute, I put it in my pocketbook for safekeeping."

Reaching into a drawer in the desk, Miss Hanson pulled out a well-worn black bag. After a moment's search she found a bill, tucked away with several one-dollar ones, that was crisp and new and had the numeral "10" in its corners. "Here it is," she said, handing it over with a smile.

The boy took the money with a grateful grin. "Well, thank goodness—we can eat for the rest of the month, anyway," he said as he left the office. "Thanks a million, Miss Hanson!"

If in July Soviet Foreign Minister V. M. Molotov clings to the line Moscow took in June, he will argue that the Marshall Plan must give priority to Russian needs, and must leave it to the Kremlin to decide how any U. S. goods and dollars should be used inside Russia.

The U. S. is growing tired of the way in which Russia has kept the Chinese port of Dairen sealed up. An American move to reopen the area, however, will be on behalf of U. S., not Chinese, interests.

The bricklayer is progressing nicely on the O. A. Smith home.

Some of the Virgil Dawdy children are reported to be ailing today, we guess they are like most of us, tired out from harvesting.

The Ratjen children and the Henry children went swimming at Ceta Glen Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. O. A. Smith and Mr. and Mrs. Jewel Jones gave a fish fry Monday night at the O. A. Smith home.

Governor Jester In Statements Says He Is Urged for Senate

Governor Beauford Jester sent up a trial balloon the other day in Austin. He said that he had received letters urging him to run for United States Senate in 1948 against W. Lee O'Daniel.

The prevailing guess at Austin is that former governor Coke Stevenson is definitely a candidate, and that Jester will seek re-election for his present job.

Jimmy Allred will probably run, while Martin Dies and George Peddy have virtually announced.

The senatorial race in 1948 will be a free-for-all fight.

Recent guests in the home of Mrs. J. S. Cleland, of this city, were her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. G. R. Frank of Phoenix, Ariz. They were en route to their home after a visit in Marshfield, Wisconsin, and a fishing trip to Apostle Islands in Lake Superior. This was their first real visit since Mr. Frank was discharged from the armed forces after serving during the war.

Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Dooley left Tuesday for Chicago, Ill., where they will visit with relatives. They expect to be away about two weeks.

Kenneth and Charles Hillier are spending a two-weeks vacation in California. They left Canyon last Saturday.

Hitchhikers Must Stand Off Hiway Pavement, or Fines

Contrary to inaccurate reports, the new Uniform Traffic Code does not prohibit hitchhiking. George Clarke, managing director of the Texas Safety Association, said in Austin.

The Code, which goes into effect September 5, was supported by the Texas Safety Association and 85 statewide cooperating groups in the recent session of the legislature as a safety measure.

The two-line subsection of the traffic code pertaining to hitchhikers reads:

"No person shall stand in a roadway for the purpose of soliciting a ride from the driver of any vehicle."

A roadway is defined in the bill as "that portion of the highway improved, designated or ordinarily used for vehicular travel."

The bill defines a highway as "the entire width between the boundary lines of every way publicly maintained when any part thereof is open to the use of the public for purposes of vehicular travel."

Clarke emphasized that the bill does not forbid any person to stand on the shoulder of the road for the purpose of soliciting a ride from a driver.

He said that it is a prevalent practice in the state for hitchhikers to stand on the concrete or corrugated surface of the road, and that this action constitutes a definite hazard to the hitchhiker, as well as to traffic.

Penalties for violations of the act range from $1 to $200.

Dr. and Mrs. Roy L. Johnson returned this week after a visit with relatives and friends in East Texas.

Pictured next are the two silver-tongued warblers who will carry much of the melody load of the show. The girl is Thelma Mercer and her companion is Bill Hutchinson. She does "Ivy" to perfection in the Pollies.

The newest and most sensational singing group on the campus, aptly named "The Dreamers," are pictured last. Their renditions are sweet and satisfying and they are a big feature of the show. From left to right they are: pianist H. R. Pulton, singers, Glenn Smith, Thelma Mercer, Jane Collins and Bill Latson.

Having the whole thing thrashed out in the next photo are the producers of the musicale. They are Bill Miller, in charge of staging and publicity, Bill Latson, director of the music part of the Pollies and Rosy Bates, head dancing instructor.

So, for an evening of complete relaxation and fun, don't miss the SnaFu Pollies. Thursday night at 8 o'clock. And all for the small charge of 25 cents.

Former Dean's Collection Given College Library

By virtue of a gift of 800 magazines from L. G. Allen, former dean of the college, the West Texas State Library plans to fill gaps in the permanent magazine files.

Among the many magazines in the collection are The Saturday Evening Post, Life, Readers Digest and a 14 year grouping of the National Geographic magazine.

A plan worked up by the Reconstruction Finance Corporation to revive German industry has failed to get very far. Idea was that German factories would import raw materials on RFC credit. Actually, only 4 per cent of the RFC funds earmarked for this purpose have been drawn. Reason is that U. S. exporters found their raw materials disappearing into Germany's black market.

Newspaper Reporter Talks of Conditions Found in Russia

The report of Ferdinand Kuhn, Jr., Washington Post reported recently returned from Russia, gives support to what already is pretty generally known about the USSR.

Mr. Kuhn's report may be summed up in these few words from the last of several articles he has written:

"To a reporter coming back from a few weeks in Moscow, it is amazing to find otherwise intelligent people who think the Soviet system offers advantages over our own. It is even more amazing to find so many Americans afraid of it."

To document his first statement, Kuhn brings out the fact that a society made "classless" by state compulsion actually is the most class conscious in the world.

He tells how the Kremlin has forced its citizens into isolation; how White Russians crowded the railroad station to watch "foreigners" with whom they have no contact whatever.

For Russians are forbidden to leave their country except on government business. They are strongly discouraged from talking to foreigners, entertaining them or even walking the streets with them.

Kuhn observes this can be only because the Kremlin is worried about the reaction of the Russian people if they were to find out what goes on in the world about them.

The Russian society, Kuhn says, consists of two classes: the government officials and favorites and the workers. The former have access to all the automobiles, good food and good housing. The latter are allowed 43 square feet of floor space—no more—for housing; they have a ration of one pound of bread a day and two and one-half pounds of meat and fish a month; their transportation is by subway or open air trucks.

The Soviets, says Kuhn, have abandoned internationalism for a strong nationalistic government. History books are being rewritten for the state-controlled schools and Trotsky is written out. His face is altered beyond recognition in all pictures in which he appears with Lenin.

Kuhn found the Russian unmilitaristic. That is to say, while there were many uniforms in evidence, there was no Nazi swagger about the soldiers.

He found the country impoverished, the people determined but hardly joyous. He believes the Russians put no stocks in the propaganda which passes for news in the government controlled press. Kuhn says the average Russian has come to the conclusion politics are none of his business and he stonily ignores political matters in the stern business of remaining.

The picture is not a pretty one. It's not hard to see why the American reporter finds it "astounding" so many Americans think Communism is superior to our own system or why he thinks we should have no fear of Russia.

Russia's diplomats have resumed their traditional fear of trouble on two fronts—in Western Europe, where a non-Soviet combination of nations is taking shape, and in the Far East, where relations with China are getting worse. The Chinese Government, in fact is not too happy about Moscow's decree ordering Soviet citizens to leave China for points north.

If the U. S. Army has its way, the occupied areas of Europe and Asia will have priority over other territory in food exports from America for the next few months. So far, the State Department is saying no.

"Sure, the list price of the dinner is $2," said the waiter to the new-car salesman. "But the flowers on the table bring it to $3.75."

Impressive Church Service Unite Jean Kleinschmidt - Frank D. Didier

MR. AND MRS. FRANK DONALD DIDIER, JR.
Mr. and Mrs. Frank Donald Didier, Jr., are pictured after their recent wedding in Huntington Park Methodist Church, Huntington Park, California. The bride is the former Jean Kleinschmidt.

Making their home at 6415, Seville Ave., are the former Jean Kleinschmidt and her bridegroom, Frank Donald Didier, Jr. The couple was married recently in Huntington Park Methodist Church in double ring rites read by Dr. P. Fowler.

The bride, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Kleinschmidt, of Canyon, Texas, was given in marriage by her father.

She was charming in a white silk suit and picture hat and an orchid corsage. White gladioli framed the altar. Traditional marches heralded the processional and recessional. Soft music formed a background for the reading of the vows.

A reception was given at the couple's new home after the ceremony, and they left later for a trip to Del Mar.

The bride, a graduate of University of Southern California is a member of Gamma Phi Beta sorority. Her husband, son of Mr. and Mrs. F. D. Didier of Los Angeles is studying at the university. —Clipping from Huntington Park Signal, Huntington Park, Calif.)

When Millard Cope, publisher of the Marshall Messenger, was a boy, he lived at Sonora and used to play in "Carver's thicket," so named from the fact that a notorious outlaw had been killed there.

The arrival of a new traveling man in the town always provided entertainment. Usually, kangaroo court was assembled and he was solemnly placed on trial for some trumped-up offense and after he had been sufficiently alarmed he was allowed to settle the case by buying drinks all around.

Another procedure was for a merchant to engage the "drummer" in conversation at the foot of a stairway in the store, maneuvering so that the traveling salesman would be standing with his back to the stairs. Suddenly, there would come a terrific noise and, looking around, the stranger saw a barrel bouncing down the steps toward him. The merchant, not being startled, would wait till the last instant, then step to one side but the panick-stricken victim of the prank would run wildly from the store with the heavy

The Trot Theatre—where would it be? In Cuero of course, the home of the "turkey trot." And as I was leaving Cuero shortly after dawn with a hop halfway across the state ahead of me, just beyond the city limits I heard a "gobble" from the grass beside the highway; a big gobble gave an appropriate farewell.

Between San Augustine and Jasper, a sign points down a side-road. "Grist mill; runs Saturdays." The highway in this area offers plenty of scenery—the tallest magnolia trees I ever saw; a pool covered with water lilies in bloom; another pool covered with lavender flowers. Just east of Palestine is a lake that is the color of new steel and as one approaches San Augustine there are long, dense hedges thick with flowers—Cherokee roses.

Although nothing has been said about it in the Argentine press, reasons why President Peron removed General Filomeno Velazco as Chief of Police are no secret in Buenos Aires. Chief reason was that Velazco seemed inclined to out-Peron Peron in his nationalism. In Argentina, excessive enthusiasm by a subordinate makes the top man uneasy.

People run around too much—making too much money. We ought to have a week just for everybody to rest—and stop going so fast.—Jesse Davis, king of the hoboes.

OUR WHEAT CROP COMES OF AGE

A QUARTER CENTURY OF PROGRESS

About 25 years ago, wheat came into its own in the territory we serve. Last year alone wheat farmers here harvested about 40 million bushels of high protein wheat... in fact almost four-fifths of that produced in Texas is grown in our area.

Today, good bread from our wheat helps keep a healthy America healthy.

We have so much confidence in the wheat industry—and all other industries we serve, that we are investing 35 million dollars in a building program. This expansion program in our territory will bring more dependable electric service to industry and farms and better living—electrically—to everyone!

How Mr. Parker gets good telephone service

Mr. Parker just got the telephone he and his family have been waiting for. He wanted an individual line because the Parkers do a lot of telephoning. But no individual lines were available because of shortages, so he took a party line instead.

Now Mr. Parker is wondering... "A party line... hum-m-m... what kind of service...?"

Party-line service is good service. It's simply a service you share with neighbors and they share with you. Of course, you can't call while someone else is using the line, but on the other hand, no one else can call while you're using it, either—so it's "even Stephen!"

Party-line service is best when conversations are kept reasonably short so everyone has a chance to call—or be called. A little thoughtfulness of the other fellow, a little practice of the golden rule do wonders on a party line.

One of these days, when we've provided service for everyone waiting and there's enough equipment, we'll be around with those individual lines Mr. Parker and hundreds of other folks would like to have.

Down Under — Where It Really Is June In January

While you swelter in the hot summer heat, the lucky folks in the southern hemisphere are having winter and enjoying winter sports. Here on a slope of Mt. Cook some New Zealanders, silhouetted against snow-capped mountains, participate in a ski-jumping contest.

Hay Joins the Ranks of Flood Casualties

When the Missouri River broke through a levee near Bethel, Kan., flood waters completely covered the 360-acre farm of Jerry O'Neill and put six feet of water in this barn where he stored his hay. Although he was able to get some of it above the water, 700 bales of green feed were washed away.

Newburyport Plan Blew Up in Faces of Local Merchants

Remember the Newburyport Plan? That was the plan to reduce prices ten per cent and head off inflation, and publicity about it spread all over the United States a couple of months ago.

What happened to it? Well, the New Yorker magazine sent a reporter up to Newburyport the other day to find out, and the answer is that the citizens of Newburyport had rather not talk about the matter any more.

It's true the merchants cut prices ten per cent, on a good many items, and the stuff sold, but when they started to replace their merchandise, the wholesalers just smiled when asked about cutting the wholesale price ten per cent. The wholesaler said he couldn't cut the price unless the manufacturer cut it, and the manufacturer said he couldn't cut it unless his raw materials prices were cut, and so it went.

The point is, you can't head off nation-wide inflation by cutting prices in one town, any more than you can save a burning building with a garden hose. How you can head it off is something this newspaper had rather not talk about, because it doesn't know.

At any rate, it was a good story, the Newburyport Plan. The big newspapers at the time had price-cutting "snowballing" throughout the nation, forgetting that a retailer has as much control over inflation as a farmer over the weather. By July the snowball had melted, lasting no longer than a snowball customarily does in Texas or wherever it is a snowball doesn't last long in.

Preacher Scientist

Dr. Irwin A. Moon, of Moody Bible Institute, seen above in one of his "Sermons from Science" demonstrations, is the producer of the sound-color film "The God of Creation" to be shown at 8:00 p. m., Wednesday, July 23, at the First Baptist Church.

Vivid full-color scenes from astronomy and natural science are featured in "The God of Creation" sound motion picture to be shown at 8:00 p. m. Wednesday, July 23, at the First Baptist Church, 1717 4th Ave., according to the Rev. Roy L. Johnson, pastor.

Produced in Moody Institute of Science, West Coast department of Moody Bible Institute, by Irwin A. Moon, Sc. D., "The God of Creation" is the second in a series of evangelistic films. The first film by Dr. Moon, "They Live Forever," had a large showing in all parts of the country.

In the opening section of "The God of Creation" the audience takes a trip to the stars by means of solar photographs taken through the giant 100-inch telescope of Mt. Wilson Observatory in southern California, and views complex gyrations of our own solar system.

Lapse-time photography is utilized to demonstrate the beauties of natural science. The illusion of flower buds developing into full-blown blossoms in a few seconds is created through this time-compressing photo technique. The metamorphosis of a caterpillar through the various stages from worm to butterfly, and pollination of flowers are seen on the screen in full color.

Believed to be the first of their kind are the natural color pictures of photosynthesis, the mysterious food manufacturing process resulting from the action of sunlight on green leaves.

Through photomicrography the audience peers into the microscopic world of a drop of water and observes the complexity of tiny organisms, enlarged more than a million times.

"The God of Creation" will be pre-

'Want a Good Cleaner-Upper Man?'

ented by Percy A. Bagge, Moody film representative.

Lions Club Hears Amarillo Speaker at Thursday's Lunch

The first Lions Club program under the new roster of officers was held last Thursday, July 10, at the regular noon meeting. A special feature was the appearance of J. B. Norman, supervising principal of the Amarillo High Schools, as guest speaker. His address brought much favorable comment since it dealt with a thorough analysis of common personality types. Being a successful school administrator of wide experience in public and pupil relationships, his speech was considered especially helpful to the layman in public relations.

The types into which people are rather sharply defined, he classified as follows: those of keen judgment, those who are impulsive, the slow or phlegmatic, the nervous or neurotic, the chronic grippers, the pessimists, the dogmatist and the egoist. He stressed the necessity for wholesome integration of all personality traits into a harmonious whole pattern.

Guests included Kenneth Goodman, Dwayne Brandt, G. C. Hanna, of Davis, Calif., G. C. Belden of Pampa, Bob Bellah and W. H. Harden.

Veterans Foreign Wars Opposed to College Program

The only organized opposition against the proposed constitutional amendment which will be presented to the voters on August 23 comes from the Veterans of Foreign Wars. The amendment would make possible a 30 years' building program from colleges.

At the state convention of veterans the position was taken that the present tax levy for Civil War Veterans should be continued and that this money should be used to pay a bonus to World War II veterans.

A resolution was proposed and carried opposing the amendment which will be submitted Aug. 23. The fallacy of the resolution is that the money raised for Civil War Veterans cannot be used for World War II veterans, or any other class of citizens of Texas. The author of the resolution proposed a constitutional amendment in the last session of the legislature to pay such a bonus, which would cost the state about $90,000,000, but this proposal was rejected on the ground that the men serving in the armed forces represented the United States, rather than the State of Texas.

If the voters of Texas will go to the polls on August 23 the proposed amendment for college buildings will be carried by an overwhelming majority.

Care of Teeth Is Most Important Daily Chore

The fact that dental decay may occur in the mouth of the average person, despite proper home care given the teeth, does not lessen the importance of brushing the teeth and massaging the gums daily, nor does it minimize the need for a cleaning and inspection of the teeth twice a year by the family dentist.

Dr. Geo. W. Cox, State Health Officer, says that the lack of these measures gives added power to germs that attack the enamel of the teeth and gum tissues.

"If, despite the practice of proper oral hygiene, decay is suspected or teeth are injured in any way, the thoughtful person will seek the dentist's office promptly for the necessary corrective work," Dr. Cox said.

"It is surprising, though, even in these days of comparative painless dentistry, that so many persons neglect to have their dental defects corrected, because they foolishly fear the discomfort they might experience in the dentist's chair," said the State Health Officer.

"There are others who having lost a tooth or several teeth make no effort to obtain replacements. Apparently they believe they can get along without them. Reduced masticating power, the annoyance and sometimes actual discomfort of chewing hard substances on the exposed gums, and crooked teeth are some of the possible consequences of gaps in the teeth."

Dr. Cox advised those who are interested in experiencing the best dental and bodily health possible, to give daily attention to their mouth and visit the dentist twice each year, and promptly seek the dentist's services should decay or other suspicious conditions arise between the periodic visits.

"In short," Dr. Cox declared, "successful mouth hygiene means not only intelligent personal daily application of prophylaxis but complete and timely cooperation with the family dentist as well."

Postoffice Charged As Victim of Vast Political Machine

Postmaster General is Robert Hannegan, Democratic National Chairman.

Postal service throughout the nation, especially in large cities, is getting terrible. Postal employees are being laid off in large numbers. Mail deliveries have been reduced and carriers limited in their work.

All postal employees have had the muzzle put on them. They are not allowed to tell the public why the postal service has deteriorated.

Senator Bridges charges that Congress gave the department all of the money requested; but that Hannegan never stays at his office to see to it that the department runs efficiently. The department runs up a deficit of nearly 300 million dollars, every year, states Bridges.

If you are having trouble getting mail, investigate what is happening in Amarillo and other large cities.

The wave of tragic airplane crashes has boosted purchasing of flight life insurance policies. Today seven times as many policies are being sold as were sold a month ago.

The Treasury Department will ask Congress to soften wartime restrictions on American's travel abroad, pointing out that the spending of an estimated $1 billion by vacationists would bolster European credits for foreign trade.

Big Toll Taken By Air Crashes

93 Lives Lost Within 24 Hours; Other Wrecks Bring Total to 174.

WASHINGTON.—Within 24 hours the two worst disasters in the commercial aviation history of the nation took 93 lives and five other plane crashes around the globe—in Japan, Iceland, the Netherlands, Alaska and Argentina—brought the total number of dead to about 174.

The most disastrous of the crashes occurred near Port Deposit, Md., when an Eastern Air Lines DC-4 transport cracked up, killing 53 aboard.

Less than 24 hours earlier 40 persons lost their lives when another DC-4, a United Air Lines transport crash-landed at LaGuardia field, New York.

Crash Probers See It.

In other plane mishaps around the world, 40 were killed in Japan, 25 in Iceland, 12 in the Netherlands, 4 in Argentina and 3 were missing in Alaska.

The crash at Port Deposit took the same toll as the crash of a Colombian Avina Airlines plane near Bogota, Colombia, last February 13.

Two civil aeronautics board officials, who investigated the plane wreck that took 39 lives in New York, witnessed from the air the crash of an Eastern Air Lines plane near Port Deposit, Md., that killed 53 persons.

The two, Col. Robert Garrett, senior air carrier accident investigator, and John Chamberlain, assistant director of the safety bureau, with two other officials, were aboard a government-owned DC-3 flying back to Washington from LaGuardia field, New York.

Worst Disasters.

Major civilian plane disasters since 1940 in which 25 or more persons were killed:

1940—August 31—25 killed, including U. S. Sen. Ernest Lundeen of Minnesota, in crash near Lovettsville, Va.

1946—March 3—27 killed when airliner crashed into mountain peak in California.

1946—March 19—26 killed in transport crash in northern California.

1946—May 16—27 killed in crash near Richmond, Va.

1946—July 18—32 killed in crash of airliner in Ecuador.

1946—September 19—39 killed in crash of Belgian airliner near Gander, Newfoundland.

1946—September 28—25 killed in crash near Rio de Janeiro, Brazil.

1946—November 14—26 killed in crash of Dutch airliner at Amsterdam.

1946—December 26—63 killed in three airliner crashes at or near Shanghai.

1946—January 5—43 killed in Chinese airliner crash at Tsingtao.

1947—February 15—53 killed in crash of airliner near Bogota, Colombia.

1947—April 8—27 killed in crash near Caracas, Venezuela.

1947—May 29—39 killed in crash of airliner at LaGuardia field, New York.

Princess Elizabeth Will

Get Household of Her Own

LONDON.—Princess Elizabeth soon must leave her father and mother and her sister, Princess Margaret Rose, and set up a separate household of her own.

King George VI and Queen Elizabeth have made the decision for their daughter. The affection and ties of the royal family probably are as deep as any in Britain, but living apart from her family is part of the price that Princess Elizabeth must pay for being a future queen.

Court speculation already is centered upon whether that announcement may precede or follow an announcement of her engagement to the former Prince Philip of Greece, now Lt. Philip Mountbatten of the Royal navy, a British citizen.

Buckingham palace sources said the engagement of the princess, just turned 21, to Philip would be discussed soon at a dinner party, which the royal family, the former prince and his mother, Princess Alice, will attend.

At any rate, Princess Elizabeth will have time to get her new household going before her wedding. She will have two and probably three residences.

French Government Seizes

All Flour Mills in Paris

PARIS.—The government seized all flour mills in the Paris area.

Premier Paul Ramadier said he would use troops if necessary to enforce the cabinet's decisions to hold the line on wages and prices.

At the same time, Ramadier personally took over the unpopular ministry of food supplies.

Antagonism between Minister of National Economy Andre Philip and Georges Rastel of the food ministry had been jeopardizing the French food situation.

The cabinet approved the order to take over the mills only a few hours after workers at the Paris Flour Milling company struck for a 12 1/2 cents an hour pay increase.
